NOTIFICATION REGARDING DRESS CODE AND IDENTITY CARD

Rules regarding Dress Code and Identify Card are laid down in Rules, Procedures and Behavioral Guidelines 1 of Assam Don Bosco University (Regulations and Syllabus). It is hereby further notified that strict adherence to the rule is demanded.

Departments, who might have special shirts etc., are allowed to use them only on no-class days for departmental activities or on departmental trips outside campus. Within the campus, during class hours all are expected to be in full uniform as indicated in Rule 1.

During working hours, entry into the academic building will not be permitted for those not decently dressed (respecting academic decorum), even if they are not attending classes or academic programmes.

In addition to what is indicated in 1.2 and 1.3, presentation of the ID card will be mandatory for entry to the Library and for exiting and entering the campus through the main gate.

Faculty and staff are requested to check for compliance with the rule and to withhold attendance for the students who do not comply with the rules. Students are requested to comply with the rules and avoid unpleasant interactions.
