

PROVISIONAL ADMISSION UNDERTAKING

(Post Graduate programmes, Assam Don Bosco University)

I understand that I am being offered provisional admission to the Assam Don Bosco University, under the following conditions.

- a) The provisional admission implies that I need to have my admission regularized.
- b) At the time of regularization of the admission, I am required to fulfill the conditions for eligibility regarding minimum percentage of marks that are given in the prospectus of the University.
- c) To regularize my admission, I am required to report at the admission offices of the university with the required documents including the marksheet of my qualifying exam and pay the balance fees for the first semester within 10 calendar days of the declaration of the results of the qualifying exam, failing which my provisional admission and the admission fee of Rs. 18,000 will be forfeited.
- d) If I meet the eligibility criteria of the university, but do not want to regularize my admission, then I stand to forfeit the admission fee of Rs. 18,000.
- e) If I do not meet the eligibility criteria of the university, my provisional admission will stand withdrawn and I will be refunded Rs. 17,000 (with Rs. 1,000 deducted as administrative charges).

I accept the conditions of this provisional admission and promise to abide by the conditions mentioned herein.
